PRB....

Attached is my manuscript, revised as we discussed in our meetings today.

We have deleted the language that we agreed to remove. Newly added language for workarounds etc is included in the track change mode so you can readily see it.

We have highlighted the language that was once of concern but on which either you agreed to drop your objections or where we have deleted some language or inserted alternative language to meet your concerns.

Bill Harlow and I have worked hard to get this back to you as quickly as possible. I ask that you make every effort to resolve all outstanding issues including with other departments and agencies -- by Friday July 11th at the latest.
